

Drinks

Squash is a sort of sirop that is not thick and has less sugar but tastes much nicer than sirop and its just add water, very good for sports.

Beer, british beer has a much creamier taste then normal beer and tastier.

Tea, very british and its to be served with a splash of milk and lots of sorts exist including earl grey, english breakfast and others, its a hot beverage and can be drunk anytime of the day.