

Talking' Bout A Revolution

Tracy Chapman

auteur, compositeur, interprète américaine .

Don't you know
 (They're) talkin' about a revolution
 It sounds like whisper
 Don't you know
 (They're) talkin' about a revolution
 It sounds like whisper

While they're standing in the welfare lines
 Crying at the doorsteps of those armies of salvation
 Wasting time in the unemployment lines
 Sitting around waiting for a promotion

Don't you know
 (They're) talkin' about a revolution
 It sounds like whisper

Poor people gonna rise up
 (And) get their share
 Poor people gonna rise up
 (And) take what's theirs

Don't you know
 You better run... run... run... ..

Oh I said you better
 Run... run... run...

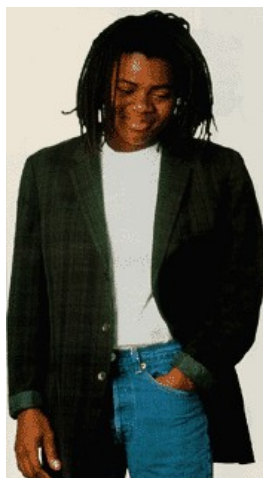

Caus' Finally the tables are starting to turn
 Talkin' bout a revolution

Yes Finally the tables are starting to turn
 Talkin' bout a revolution oh oh
 Talkin' bout a revolution

While they're standing in the welfare lines
 Crying at the doorsteps of those armies of salvation
 Wasting time in the unemployment lines
 Sitting around waiting for a promotion

Don't you know
 (They're) talkin' about a revolution
 It sounds like whisper
 And Finally the tables are starting to turn
 Talkin' bout a revolution

Finally the tables are starting to turn
 Talkin' bout a revolution

... en 1988, une jeune artiste noire sort de l'ombre après des années de galère, avec cette chanson « Talking' bout a revolution », qui ose parler de l'Amérique des laissés pour compte... Cette collection de chansons, écrites entre 1982 et 1987, est un véritable concentré d'émotions. Le message est souvent politisé et désabusé mais ne sombre jamais dans l'outrance : la pauvreté, l'apartheid, l'amour perdu, la violence conjugale, la guerre, la famine... autant de thèmes développés de manière très pudique...
