Homework 1

My favourite outfit is a dark blue suit, a pink shirt, a red tie, dark gloves and dark leather shoes.

I like wearing a pair of loose navy blue sweatpants, a tight yellow T-shirt, a red polka dot hoodie, a striped jacket and colorful high-rise trainers.

I hate wearing kilts, torn jeans, flowery overalls/onesies, short lacy dresses and checkered tank tops.

I will never wear a pair of zebra leggings and a wool top.

(futur)

I would never wear a fur coat because I love wildlife and I am against cruelty.

(conditionnel)

(wildlife = animaux sauvages)(against = contre, opposé à)

Les comparatifs

1) Le comparatif de supériorité : "plus... que"   (que : than)

- adjectif court+ER

    I would like a T-shirt a bit darker than yours.

- more   +adjectif long

    Do you have a pair of pants more colorful than mine ?

- cas particuliers : meilleur=better   pire=worse

    I'm going to take the shirt because it is better quality than the T-shirt.

    I'm not going to take anything because the jumper is even worse quality than the pants.   (even : encore +)

2) Le comparatif d'infériorité : moins... que   (que : than)

less   + adjectif (court ou long, peu importe)

    I prefer these gloves because they are less dark.

3) Le comparatif d'égalité : aussi/autant ... que

as + adjectif (court ou long, peu importe) + as

    My swimsuit is as nice as yours.

    Your dress is not as cute as mine.

Homework 2

a- I would like something more colorful.

b- Have you got something longer ?

c- I don't know (what to choose) because the dress is less expensive than the pants.

d- I think the jacket is nicer/cuter/cooler than the shirt.   (a cooler : une glacière)

e- It's too tight, do you have something more comfortable.
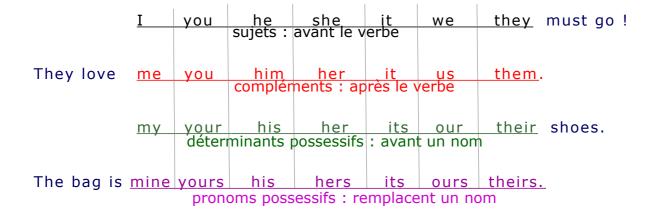

What do you think ?

- What do you think about this hoodie ?
- It's too long for me. Have you got something/anything shorter and without the design ?
with : avec / without : sans / design : motif

- What about the pants ?
- It's not really my style. I'm looking for something less short and hipper.

- How about the suit ?
- I would like something more classic and darker. I'm not a big fan of flowery ties. I prefer striped ties.

- Are these jeans OK for your girlfriend ?
- I don't really like them. They are too baggy. I would like something more modern, like skinny jeans for example.

- What's the problem with the dress ?
- It's too colorful. Have you got it in navy blue and shorter ?

I	you	he	she	it	we	they	must go !

Jerry is making a face because | maybe he doesn't like suits (in general)
                                | perhaps he doesn't like these suits

Jerry wanted to wear jeans, sneakers, a shirt and a jacket but he can't because it's too casual for his sister's wedding.

I don't like the first suit because it is black and striped and I don't want to look like a penguin or a grandpa.

I don't want the second one because it is navy blue and this color looks terrible on me.

I'm a big fan of the third one but it's way/much too expensive : it costs 2 hundred bucks=dollars and I can only spend one hundred and forty.

Pour éviter de répéter un groupe nominal, on utilise IT ou THEM.
I hate my old bag. I want to sell it.
I hate these old shoes. I want to sell them.

Pour éviter de répéter un nom, on utilise ONE ou ONES
On en a besoin car en anglais on ne peut pas laisser un adjectif tout seul.
I hate my old bag. I want a new one.
I hate these old shoes. I want new ones.

a- This dress is too flashy/colorful for me. Do you have it in black ?

b- Do you have them in blue ?

c- I like the brown ones better. I think they're cuter/nicer/cooler.

d- I don't like these ones because they're too short. Would you have longer ones ?

Training

- I need a cute dress for a party.
- I would like something short and I like flowery dresses but I don't like green.
- Ok, I have three different dresses : the first one is red with a belt. The second one is purple with a big yellow star on the front. And the third one is pink with polka dots and a belt too.
- I like them. = je les aime bien
- The red one is too flowery and the purple one is too original for me and it looks like it's for kids. I like the pink one better because it's more trendy and tighter.
- It's on sale ! 30 percent off !
